THE T3 SMART HOME SHOW
The UK's Only Consumer Showcase for Home Technology
22 – 25 March 2007
National Exhibition Centre, (NEC) , Birmingham

More people are discovering that smart homes are not only a fabulous way of life but an increasingly affordable reality.

The T3 Smart Home Show, which is on at the NEC from 22 – 25 March 2007, will bring together all the latest trends in smart home solutions. Visitors will find out how to enhance their home with a sophisticated multi-room entertainment system; improve the look of their home with a lighting system that changes the mood of a room; increase their safety by installing a state-of-the-art security system; chill out watching a favourite movie from the comfort of their bath....and how all these can be controlled from the touch of a button inside or outside the home.

There will be hundreds of products to meet every need and budget including

- multi-room entertainment
- home cinema
- audio & visual components
- lighting systems
- telecoms/intercoms systems
- touch control panels
- remote access/monitoring
- wireless, cabling systems
- distributed internet access
- planning, consultation, installation, new technology and intelligent appliances
- security systems
- climate control systems

Visitors to The T3 Smart Home Show will also gain free access into the co-located National Homebuilding & Renovating Show which brings together over 500 national and regional exhibitors, new products, new services and all the latest innovations in the self-build and renovation market.

For tickets to The T3 Smart Home Show, you can call the ticket hotline 0870 730 0964, or visit www.smarthomeshow.co.uk . Tickets are £8.00 in advance, or £12.00 on the door. The show will be open daily from 10am to 5pm on 22 – 25 March 2007.
